

2026 Translational Science Symposium (TSS26)

October 28–30, 2026 The Lodge at Gulf State Park · Gulf Shores, Alabama

Make time for your science. Build connections that move it forward.

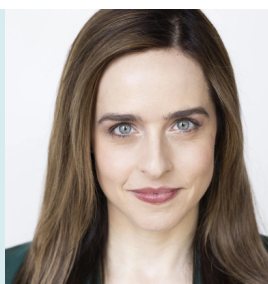

KEYNOTE PRESENTER

Sara Serritella

Science Communicator
University of Chicago

Explore scientific communication with a nationally recognized expert.

October 29 | 4:30–5:30pm

EVENT LOCATION

The Lodge at Gulf State Park

Visit go.uab.edu/tss26 to take advantage of the discounted room rate by booking a room before October 5, 2026.

WHY ATTEND?

Expand your research toolkit.

Explore AI in research, dissemination and implementation approaches, and more!

Strengthen how you share science.

Engage with a scientific communication workshop and keynote, Three Minute Thesis, poster presentations, and TED-style talks.

Connect across disciplines.

Meet CCTS Partner Network colleagues through networking, posters, and a collaboration dinner.

AGENDA AT A GLANCE

OCT 28 | Preconference

Dissemination and implementation workshop. Select preconference attendance when registering. Open to all.

OCT 29 | Learn + connect

AI in research, communication workshop,
poster presentations, Three Minute Thesis,
keynote, and dinner.

OCT 30 | Build + apply

Community-engaged research, early-career
faculty development, Science Bites talks, and closing lunch.

CCTS

Center for Clinical and Translational Science

Register for TSS26

Free registration.

Registration closes 10/16.

Scan to reserve your place.

Details: go.uab.edu/tss26

Questions? Contact Ty Lucas · lucastj@uab.edu