PT Virtual Assessment

Candidate Confidentiality Agreement

In order to maintain the integrity of the Virtual Interview Process, we expect that candidates will keep all aspects of the interview process, including the online interview through Kira Talent, confidential. Any evidence of candidates breaking confidentiality could result in application ineligibility

Document your agreement to hold this information confidential by reading the statement below and providing your signature.

As a student candidate interviewing at The University of Alabama at Birmingham signing below, I agree that portions of the virtual interview are private to UAB's admissions office, and I will not share content or questions related to the assessment with anyone.
